Investors Dream - 62,000sqm Land for Sale in Pomona

This 62,000sqm parcel of vacant land presents an outstanding investment opportunity with immediate utility and long-term growth potential. The property includes two 600sqm storerooms and an additional 300sqm storeroom, offering substantial on-site storage capacity while development plans are underway. Existing office facilities add further value, allowing for administrative operations to be managed directly from the site. The land's expansive size and existing infrastructure make it suitable for a range of industrial or commercial applications, from logistics to warehousing or future subdivision.

Zoning for the property is currently in the final stages of approval, with completion expected soon. Once finalised, the price is set to
